Shortage of Judges

395. SHRI SATISH PRADHAN: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the shortage of Judges in various courts in the country, State-wise;

(b) whether it is a fact that Maharashtra has shortfall of 60 Judges; and

(c) whether Government are going to fill-up these posts?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) The shortage of Judges in various High Courts and in District/Subordinate Courts, State-wise, are as per Statement I and II respectively (See below).

(b) As per the available information, there were 173 vacant posts of judges and magistrates in the State of Maharashtra as on 13.7.2001.

(c) Appointment of District Judges and other judges of the subordinate courts is made by the Governor of the State in consultation with the High Court exercising jurisdiction in relation to such State under the provisions of articles 233-234 of the Constitution of India. The Central Government have been periodically urging the State Governments/Union Territories and the High

Courts to accord utmost priority to filling up of vacant posts of judges and magistrates.

The Minister of Law, Justice and Company Affairs had written to the Chief Justices of all High Courts and Chief Ministers of all States on 4.4.2001 to fill up the existing vacancies on priority. Further, the Minister of Law, Justice and Company Affairs has also taken up with the Chief Minister of Maharashtra on 5.2.2002, for filling up the existing vacancies in the District/ Subordinate judiciary in his State.
